Customer's Feedbacks from prototypes shown.

1. There was no feedback in the final submission but rather a question.

The question was regarding the comments that were used in the final prototype.

The explanation was that these comments will be by the users and will show the users name above comments after they login to the system.

The MVP 2 contains creating the database where the users will be able to login.